RII40520 Certificate IV in Resource Processing (Training & Assessment Pathway)

This qualification reflects the role of employees such as a supervisor or team leader working in a metal or coal processing facility. They perform tasks involving a broad range of varied activities most of which are complex and non-routine. They are responsible for the quantity and quality of the output of others, contribute to the development of technical solutions to non-routine problems and apply safety management plans to the workplace. 12 units are required, 4 core and 8 electives, to achieve this qualification.

Registered Training Organisation: TNLC Thrivability Training & Coaching are a nationally recognised training organisation, provider #51358 and are able to issue "Statement of Attainments" and "Qualifications". Check out www.training.gov.au for further information on packaging rules and our RTO scope.

Delivery Mode: We run the units two or three times per year and they can be completed in any order. People with a Cert IV in Frontline Management will not need to do Group C Electives, they only need to complete the eight RII units above. Note it is possible to undertake different units for this program, however they will need to be completed by the RPL pathway.
